Data sharing statement

BraTS 2020 and the processed BraTS-Africa TCIA release remain subject to their source access terms. Raw medical images and labels are not redistributed. Versioned code, configuration files, data manifests without source images, hashes, split assignments, tests, analysis outputs permitted for release, and reconstruction instructions will be available through the final repository release and archival record. The release identifier and archival DOI will be inserted after Gates I-K pass. Distribution of trained checkpoints remains subject to author confirmation and applicable source-data terms.

Ethics statement

[AUTHOR CONFIRMATION REQUIRED: institutional determination for secondary use of public deidentified data, including exemption or waiver language where applicable.]

Use of generative AI and AI-assisted technologies

[AUTHOR CONFIRMATION REQUIRED: identify the tools and describe their use in manuscript preparation according to the journal's current policy. All authors remain responsible for accuracy, originality, citation, and final wording.]
